2x150

A large, rectangular metal plate with a heavily rusted, brownish-orange surface. The plate is positioned diagonally across the frame. In the lower-left corner, the number '2x150' is written in white chalk. The plate is resting on a surface that includes a section of silver-colored diamond plate metal and a dark, gravelly area. A small, dark, irregular object is visible near the bottom left corner of the plate.
